

Day-by-Day Plan

The Three Ms - Bringing language learning to life: making learning motivating, meaningful and memorable.

Many of these ideas, techniques and tips will also be applicable to CLIL

Stick your neck out and push the envelope! Upgrading and stretching your own use of English – including extending your everyday idiomatic and informal English, and new words and phrases in English

CLIL: a main focus on CLIL: Content and Language Integrated Learning

| | 8.30 – 11.00 | 11.20 – 13.30 |
|------------------|--|---|
| Monday | Welcome, Forming the group, icebreakers – for you and your class Bringing grammar and vocabulary to life: various vocabulary and grammar fun activities, both for teachers and learners | Introduction to CLIL: what it is, implementing it and some tips |
| Tuesday | The Three Ms - Bringing language learning to life: making them motivating, meaningful and memorable a. Activities for Speak and Play: motivating, fun activities for oral production b. Dialogue Building: introducing new language features through the engaging technique of dialogue building c. Narrative building: another motivating, engaging language teaching technique which totally involves the whole class d. Integrating pronunciation features into everyday teaching: some really useful teaching techniques | Stick your neck out and push the envelope! Upgrading and stretching your own use of English |
| Wednesday | Stick your neck out and push the envelope! Upgrading and stretching your own use of English | The Three Ms - Bringing language learning to life: making them motivating, meaningful and memorable Using commercially-produced songs in the classroom: a roller-coaster of engaging integrated skill activities which can be used with any song |
| Thursday | The Three Ms - Bringing language learning to life: making them motivating, meaningful and memorable a. Jazz chants and grammar raps b. More Activities for Speak and Play: motivating, fun activities for oral production c. Words! Words! Words! Engaging activities for learners to learn and practice vocabulary | Stick your neck out and push the envelope! Upgrading and stretching your own use of English through a vocabulary teaching and learning workshop. |
| Friday | A potpourri of activities using fun, humour and storytelling techniques | More activities using fun, humour and storytelling techniques Certificates and goodbyes |